POSITION EXISTS IN: Rockland County District Attorney's Office.

RESIDENCE REQUIREMENTS: Candidates must be legal residents of Rockland County at the time of examination.

SALARY: The starting salary is $65.12 per hour for a 40-hour workweek with Rockland County District Attorney's Office. Salary will be pro-rated for less than full-time positions.

WHAT THE JOB IS LIKE: This is specialized investigative work of a complex nature which involves the responsibility for coordinating, investigating and supervising the investigation of crimes, offenses and violations of law to assist in the legal work of the District Attorney. This position is distinguished from Criminal Investigator by the responsibility for the supervision of others, the investigation of more complex cases and the independence involved in the use of technical skills to conduct investigations. Supervision is provided to Criminal Investigators and support staff. Supervision is received from the Chief Criminal Investigator and/or the District Attorney and involves the exercise of considerable independent judgment. Incumbents are Police Officers as defined by Article 1.20(34)(g) of Criminal Procedure Law. This work requires on call duties including nights and weekends. Does related work as required.

When completing the application, your description of experience must specify the dates of your employment, the number of hours worked per week, your title, and the main duties for each. Be specific; vagueness will not be resolved in your favor. Candidates who submit incomplete applications or documentation may be disqualified.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS: By examination date, you must have:

1. An Associate's degree or equivalent college credits (minimum of sixty (60) credits) and seven (7) years of post-degree, paid supervisory experience as a sworn member of a law enforcement agency (e.g. Police Sergeant, Supervisory Special DEA Agent, Supervisory Special FBI Agent), which substantially involved investigative work and investigative analysis; or
2. A Bachelor's degree and five (5) years of post-degree, paid supervisory experience as a sworn member of a law enforcement agency (e.g. Police Sergeant, Supervisory Special DEA Agent, Supervisory Special FBI Agent), which substantially involved investigative work and investigative analysis; or
3. A Master's degree in Criminal Justice, Criminology, Forensic Science, Forensic Accounting, Forensic Psychology, or a related field and two (2) years of post-degree, paid supervisory experience as a sworn member of a law enforcement agency (e.g. Police Sergeant, Supervisory Special DEA Agent, Supervisory Special FBI Agent), which substantially involved investigative work and investigative analysis; or
4. A Juris Doctorate from an American Bar Association accredited school and two (2) years of post-degree, paid supervisory experience as a sworn member of a law enforcement agency (e.g. Police Sergeant, Supervisory Special DEA Agent, Supervisory Special FBI Agent), which substantially involved investigative work and investigative analysis.

NOTE: The required experience as outlined above must have been on a full-time basis.

SUBJECT OF WRITTEN EXAMINATION:

1. Evaluating Information and Evidence – These questions test for the ability to evaluate and draw conclusions from information and evidence. Each question consists of a set of facts and a conclusion based on the facts. The candidate must decide if the conclusion is warranted by the facts.
2. Investigative Techniques and Criminalistics – These questions test for knowledge of criminal investigation techniques and criminalistics. The questions will deal with, but will not necessarily be restricted to, such concepts as: interviewing; interrogation; evidence gathering and preservation; and surveillance.
3. Supervision – These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices employed in planning, organizing, and controlling the activities of a work unit toward predetermined objectives. The concepts covered, usually in a situational question format, include such topics as assigning and reviewing work; evaluating performance; maintaining work standards; motivating and developing subordinates; implementing procedural change; increasing efficiency; and dealing with problems of absenteeism, morale, and discipline.
4. Understanding and Interpreting Written Material – These questions test how well you comprehend written material. You will be provided with brief reading selections and will be asked questions about the selections. All the information required to answer the questions will be presented in the selections; you will not be required to have any special knowledge relating to the subject areas of the selections.
5. Preparing Written Material in a Police Setting – These questions test for the ability to prepare the types of reports that police personnel write. Some questions test for the ability to present information clearly and accurately. They consist of restatements of information given in note form. You must choose the best version from each set of four choices. Other questions test for the ability to organize paragraphs. They consist of paragraphs with their sentences out of order. For each of the paragraphs you must choose, from four suggestions, the best order of the sentences.
6. New York State Laws – Police – These questions test for knowledge of the laws in effect on January 1, 2024 that law enforcement personnel may encounter in the course of their day-to-day work-related activities. The questions are a sampling of job-related sections of the Penal Law, Criminal Procedure Law, Vehicle and Traffic Law, Family Court Act and other laws relevant to law enforcement in New York State.

USE OF CALCULATORS IS PROHIBITED FOR THIS EXAMINATION
