

SECURITY OFFICER II (RCC)

DISTINGUISHING FEATURES OF THE CLASS: This is security work involving responsibility for overall campus safety at Rockland Community College, and for the general protection of students, staff and visitors. This title is distinguished from that of Security Officer I in the level of independent judgment exercised, in the complexity of assignments, and in the requirement for the supervision of staff. The work is performed under the supervision of the Director of Public Safety and in accordance with Sections 2.10 and 2.20 of the Criminal Procedure Law and pursuant to the Laws of New York, 2003, Chapter 689. Supervision is provided to other security staff. Does related work as required.

TYPICAL WORK ACTIVITIES:

Maintains security and order on campus, including fire prevention and law enforcement;
Enforces the Student Code of Conduct;
Patrols campus buildings, grounds and parking areas on foot or in a patrol vehicle in order to maintain order, protect persons and property, control traffic, provide first aid and prevent theft, trespassing or damage;
Inspects fire extinguishers;
Inspects a variety of heating and cooling equipment, reporting any malfunctions to appropriate authority;
Investigates suspicious activities and complaints made directly to campus security;
Checks doors, windows and entrances to buildings to ensure they are secured;
Controls and directs traffic on campus grounds or campus-related roads and parking areas, and issues parking violation tickets;
Investigates motor vehicle accidents that occur on campus or campus-related roads;
Provides directions and information to students and visitors;
Contacts appropriate college staff regarding building emergencies and/or snow removal;
Prepares and maintains applicable records and reports;
May provide guidance to security staff and oversee security-related activities.

FULL PERFORMANCE KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS, ABILITIES AND PERSONAL CHARACTERISTICS:

Good knowledge of security practices and procedures; good knowledge of safety precautions necessary to eliminate existing and potential security, safety and fire hazards; good knowledge of the physical layout of campus buildings and grounds; good knowledge of the Penal Law, Criminal Procedure Law and Vehicle and Traffic Laws of the State of New York, as such laws pertain to security at a community college; ability to establish and maintain cooperative relations with students, staff and campus visitors; ability to prepare clear and concise reports.
