

SOCIAL WELFARE EXAMINER

DISTINGUISHING FEATURES OF THE CLASS: This is review and evaluation work of a moderately complex nature involving responsibility for gathering and documenting information needed to make determinations regarding the eligibility of clients applying for welfare under programs administered by the Department of Social Services (e.g. Public Assistance, Medical Assistance, Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP)). The work is performed under the direct supervision of a higher-level examiner and in accordance with State guidelines, regulations and established departmental procedures. Does related work as required.

TYPICAL WORK ACTIVITIES:

Reviews certification forms for completeness and accuracy;
Interviews applicants for assistance and recipients to gather information necessary for making eligibility determinations;
Evaluates applicants' financial resources and makes preliminary eligibility determinations for assistance in accordance with laws, regulations, and policies and procedures;
Prepares forms with required budget information, case status and demographics;
Advises applicant of program eligibility, amount of grant, obligations, etc.;
Makes referrals for field investigation;
Enters financial information used for budget calculations into a computer terminal and retrieves information, when necessary;
Determines appropriate documents and reviews them to verify eligibility and/or determine further required actions;
Initiates contacts with outside agencies to verify eligibility for financial assistance;
Makes recommendations for disposition of cases reviewed;
May refer applicant to appropriate social services sections (e.g. resource, housing, employment, legal medical, etc.) and outside agencies;
May testify at administrative or judicial hearings.

FULL PERFORMANCE KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS, ABILITIES AND PERSONAL CHARACTERISTICS:

Good knowledge of Federal, State and local social services laws and programs as they affect eligibility for financial assistance in various Social Services programs; working knowledge of the Welfare Management System; working knowledge of laws (Workers' Compensation, Social Security, Unemployment Insurance, etc.) which also affect eligibility*; working knowledge of interviewing techniques and principles; ability to establish and maintain cooperative relationships with others; ability to gather and analyze facts and make basic determinations as to financial eligibility of clients; ability to understand and carry out oral and written instructions; ability to understand and interpret written material.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS: An Associate's degree or equivalent college credits beyond high school (a minimum of sixty (60) credits) and two (2) years of experience in the human services field.

NOTES:

1. Additional years of college may be substituted for the required experience on a year-for-year basis, up to two (2) years.
2. A Bachelor's degree may be deemed fully qualifying.

(over)

*To be demonstrated during the probationary period.

Human services setting shall be defined as a public or private organization in which human services are provided, generally to prevent as well as resolve problems and to assist individuals in functioning as effectively as possible; services include but are not limited to social, economic, psychological, and/or emotional support services that are provided to clients or individuals (services are generally related to public assistance, social services, mental health, substance abuse, aging, special need children, etc.). Human services experience involves direct contact with clients and such contact requires judgment on the part of human services provider in interacting with or responding to clients.